by the rival factions of Benakanahalli in the Honnali Taluk.

In the year 1913, the Deputy Commr recommended that the restriction imposed in the above order might be withdrawn on the ground that on the death of one of the leaders of the rival factions, the party feelings had subsided and that all the temple devotees were of one mind. The Dy Commrs recommendation was sanctioned in Govt Pro no 2433 dy 13.6.1913.

Secretary to the Government of Mysore,
General and Revenue Departments.,
Bangalore.

Sir,

Adverting to Government Proceedings No.2433/ M.F. 681-12-2 dated 15th June 1913, sanctioning the withdrawal of the restriction imposed in the Government order No.3504 dated 3rd February 1908, to the effect that the car festival of Sri Vinayaka Devaru at Benakanahalli in the Honnali Taluk should be celebrated by the two rival parties in the village by turns, I have the honour to state that the Amildar of Honnali in his Ittilla No.178 dated 6th October 1913 reports that the factions in the village have not yet disappeared and that the car festival has to be stopped until the villagers co-operate and celebrate it unitedly.

2. Kariyappa and Nanjappa leaders of one party in their statement given before the Amildar have expressed their reluctance to celebrate the car festival in conjunction with the other party, Owing to the continued existence of factions in the village.

3. The Sub-Division Officer, Shimoga states in his memo No. 381 dated 12th December 1913 that there are apparently other devotees besides the persons who form cliques referred to in the previous correspondence and that they would be disappointed if the car festival is stopped, on account of party feelings in the village.

4. In these circumstances I have the honour to recommend that the order of Government passed on the subject in the year 1908 may be revived and given effect to.

The Vernacular papers received with the Shimoga Sub-Division Officer's memo referred to are enclosed for reference and kind return.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Deputy Commissioner,

Shimoga District.
